WEST RUTLAND
HIGH SCHOOL
JUNE 13, 1963

We, the Class of 1963, proudly dedicate our yearbook to

MISS MARGARET A. BLISS

who has, for the past four years, rendered much of her time and effort for the betterment of our class.

Without her constant aid, our years at West Rutland High School would not have been as successful or rewarding.

Valedictory

NON NOBIS, SED OMNIBUS
NOT FOR OURSELVES, BUT FOR ALL

OUR COMMENCEMENT tonight marks the completion of a period of formal study and research—a period during which we have, with guidance, help and direction, been seekers of truth. Through this experience we have not only sought truth, we have learned something about how to seek it. Through it we have learned how to learn.

We have come to realize that the quest of truth is a never-ending one. It involves a constant reaching out to new horizons—new areas of thought. This is progress; and true progress can operate only in a climate of freedom from disturbance—freedom from destructive interference. Hence our ideal: progress with peace—the freedom to make our contribution to true progress which will be made NON NOBIS-SED OMNIBUS—not merely for ourselves, but for all.

JOHN JOSEPH OPRENDEK

Salutatory

IT IS my privilege, on behalf of the class of 1963, to welcome you to commencement.

Since this is our final appearance as students of West Rutland High School, I think it is highly proper that we take this occasion to express a special word of thanks and appreciation to you, our teachers, our parents, our friends. It is you, who have made this occasion and all it implies, possible. You have often reminded us that we are citizens of tomorrow, and to the end that we may be good citizens—useful citizens—you have made available to us the advantages of a high school education.

It is for us now to prove to you and to ourselves that your genuine interest in us was justified. To do just that—will be a source of pride and gratitude—yours—the pride—ours—the gratitude.

President's Message

THE TIME has now arrived for the class of 1963 to begin the most important phase of our lives. How we function in the future will depend on how much we have accomplished in the past four years at West Rutland High School. We know not what lies before us but I am sure that we will do our best to live up to the standards of adulthood.

At this time I would like to thank, on behalf of the graduating class, the faculty, our parents and friends who have helped to prepare us for our places in the world.

JOHN PLUTA, President

Class History

1959-1960

IN SEPTEMBER of 1959, thirty-four bewildered freshmen walked through the portals of West Rutland High School.

That first day was very hectic! First Mr. Hinchey seated us alphabetically. Then the first bell rang and we went rushing out of study hall into a mass of confusion as no one knew where he was to go first.

After surviving the dreaded Freshman Reception we soon became accustomed to Westside.

William Benham, Anthony Edwards, John Pluta, and William Valentine represented the freshmen by being on the football squad.

The One-Act Play Contest came and William Burke, Anthony Edwards, Robert Janas, Sylvia Lio, John Oprendeck, Maureen Powers, Phyllis Turner, and William Valentine displayed their talents in "Suitable For Charity."

Patricia Amsden, William Benham, Janie Brown, William Burke, Mary Cheney, Robert Fredette, Sylvia Lio, Margaret McNamara, John Oprendeck, Bette Potter, Maureen Powers, Barbara Ransom, Donna Schollar, Paul Trepanier, and Phyllis Turner lent their voices to the glee club in the annual Christmas Concert under the direction of Miss Margaret Bliss. Mr. Napoleon Ianni conducted the band, giving a splendid performance.

After Christmas vacation we all buckled down for those dreaded Mid-Year Exams.

Soon Mid-Years were over and each of us was enthralled with the basketball season. J.V. Cheerleaders from our class were Patricia Amsden, Carole Geryk, Sylvia Lio, and Maureen Powers.

Before we knew it, spring was upon us and William Benham, Robert Gregory, James Higgins, and John Pluta were on the baseball diamond for the freshmen.

The athletic play, "Hero in Distress," had in its cast William Burke, Anthony Edwards, Maureen Powers, and Phyllis Turner from our class.

Taking part in the Prize Speaking Contest from the freshman class were Anthony Edwards, John Oprendeck, Paul Trepanier, and Phyllis Turner; the latter two gave humorous readings and won.

Along with the Prize Speaking Contest was the annual Fashion Show put on by the girls who had taken home economics that year.

Our class officers during that year were: William Burke, President; John Oprendeck, Vice President; and Paul Trepanier, Secretary-Treasurer.

Final Exams were over and soon we all were enjoying a much deserved summer vacation.

1960-1961

AFTER a joyous summer we came back to Westside "armed" with "war paint" for the new freshmen.

New faculty members were Mr. Kenneth J. O'Neill, head of the French Department and of English III and English IV, and Mrs. Patricia P. Holub, head of the Commercial Department.

The Freshman Reception committee consisted of Patricia Amsden, Janie Brown, James Daley, Robert Gregory, Sandra Gregory, John Pluta, Norman Sevigny, and Phyllis Turner.

Our class officers were chosen in a meeting held in Miss Bliss's room. President was Robert Gregory; Vice-President was Phyllis Turner; Secretary-Treasurer was Norman Sevigny.

Sophomores playing football were William Benham, Robert Gregory, John Pluta, and William Valentine.

With the commended performance of William Burke, the Sophomores won the One-Act Play Contest; also in the cast were Patricia Amsden, Anthony Edwards, Sylvia Lio, John Oprendeck, Paul Trepanier, Phyllis Turner, and William Valentine. The name of this play was "Campus Brides."

The glee club and the band presented a concert before the Christmas holidays. In the band were Patricia Amsden, William Benham, Janie Brown, William Burke, Sylvia Lio, Margaret McNamara, Bonnie Paul, Ralph Perry, Maureen Powers, and Phyllis Turner. The Spring Concert was held in April.

J.V. Cheerleaders were Patricia Amsden, Carole Geryk, Sylvia Lio, Bonnie Paul, and Maureen Powers from our class.

Soon-Mid-Years were over and the basketball season was in full swing.

Patricia Amsden was chosen by Mr. Ianni to attend the All-State Music Festival and the Tri-State Music Festival, along with other members of the band.

After Final Exams were over the annual Prize Speaking Contest was held. Contestants from our class were Patricia Amsden, William Burke, John Oprendeck, and John Pluta. "Courage for Two," a dramatic reading, brought first prize for William Burke.

The Fashion Show was held and the girls in our class modeled the "creations" they had made while in home economics that year.

We then left for a summer of relaxation and anticipation of what was to come during our Junior year at Westside.

1961-1962

FINALLY, as Juniors, we marched proudly into West Rutland High School for the third year. Now, no one could disturb our pride except the Seniors.

Two new teachers were added to the faculty this year. Miss Elizabeth Lavalette, teaching Typewriting, Shorthand, and Office Practice; and Mr. Donald O'Leary became head of the Science department, including Chemistry, Biology, Physics, and General Science.

We received our long-awaited class rings, and for the next few weeks we made sure everyone noticed them.

Our first class meeting was held under the guidance of Mr. Kenneth O'Neill, our class advisor. We elected officers as follows: President—Robert Gregory, Vice President—Phyllis Turner, Secretary—Norman Sevigny, (Donna Schollar later acquired this position), and our Treasurer was the trustworthy John Oprendeck. We decided to try and raise money during our Junior and Senior years in order to have a nice Prom and extra money for what ever might come up in the next two years. Our project, consisting of dances, raffles, and food sales, was successful.

Football season was soon in full swing and rehearsals for the One-Act Plays began. Juniors on the football squad were William Benham, Anthony Edwards, Robert Gregory, James Higgins, John Pluta, and William Valentine. Those contributing their talent to the Junior play were Patricia Amsden, William Burke, Sylvia Lio, Maureen Powers, and William Valentine. The farce was entitled, "Battle of the Budget." Anthony Edwards, Robert Gregory, and John Oprendeck donated their talent to the Senior play.

Christmas vacation of 1961 was welcomed dearly. The band gave its usual concert for the Yuletide season, under the direction of Mr. Napoleon Ianni. Members from our class were Patricia Amsden, Jane Brown, Sylvia Lio, Margaret McNamara, Bonnie Paul, Ralph Perry, Maureen Powers, and Phyllis Turner. Glee Club participants were Patricia Amsden, Jane Brown, William Burke, Mary Jane Cheney, Anthony Edwards, Sandra Gregory, Sylvia Lio, John Oprendeck, Ralph Perry, Maureen Powers, Barbara Ransom, Donna Schollar, Paul Trepanier, and Phyllis Turner.

Basketball season began with Mr. Leamy coaching William Benham, Robert Gregory, James Higgins, and John Pluta from the Junior class. To cheer the team on were Sylvia Lio, Bonnie Paul, and Maureen Powers.

Mid-Year Examinations brought many sighs and moans, but we all survived and readily began the second half of our Junior year.

Our February vacation came and went, giving us energy enough to continue until our Spring vacation in April. During the first week in May, the Vermont All-State Music Festival was held in Burlington. Those chosen to attend were Patricia Amsden, Jane Brown, and William Burke. In the three following weeks, the band traveled to Cambridge, New York, for the Tri-State Music Festival; Manchester, Vermont, for the Ianni Festival; and also to Woodstock for the Alumni Parade.

June arrived and with it came the annual Prize Speaking contest. Patricia Amsden and John Oprendeck represented the Junior class. John won the first prize with his piece entitled "Junior's First Shave."

We were proud to stand up for the Seniors when they received their diplomas on June 14, 1962. After receiving our report cards the next day, and counting our credits to insure our admission to the Senior home room, we happily left for a three month summer vacation.

1962-1963

IN SEPTEMBER of 1962, we entered West Rutland High School as dignified Seniors. Well, anyway, we arrived for our fourth and final year.

Three new teachers joined the staff. They were Miss Nancy Yager, head of the Typewriting, Shorthand, and Office Practice departments; Mr. John Kelley—English III, IV, and French I and II; Mr. Charles Wise became our leader in Bookkeeping I and II, Basic Mathematics, Commercial Law, Economics, and Civics.

We held a class meeting under the supervision of Miss Bernice Hinchey, our home room teacher. Elected as Senior class officers were, President—John Pluta, Vice President—Phyllis Turner, Secretary—Barbara Ransom, and Treasurer—Sandra Gregory. We were in a hurry to begin our yearbook, thus we chose our committees soon afterward. We also voted on our graduation announcements and name cards.

Football season began and John Pluta was chosen as captain of the squad. Coaches were Mr. O'Leary and Mr. Kelley. Senior cheerleaders were Carole Geryk, Sylvia Lio, Bonnie Paul, and Maureen Powers.

The One-Act Plays carried the talents of Patricia Amsden, William Burke, William Benham, Robert Gregory, Anthony Edwards, Sylvia Lio, John Oprendeck, Maureen Powers, Phyllis Turner, and William Valentine. The play was a comedy called "The New Bride."

Christmas once more was here, and Mr. Ianni held the annual concert in the gymnasium. Participants in the band this year were Jane Brown, William Burke, Sylvia Lio, Margaret McNamara, Bonnie Paul, Ralph Perry, and Phyllis Turner. Members in the Glee Club from the Senior class were Jane Brown, William Burke, Mary Jane Cheney, Anthony Edwards, Sandra Gregory, Robert Gregory, Sylvia Lio, John Oprendeck, John Pluta, Maureen Powers, Bonnie Paul, Barbara Ransom, Donna Schollar, Paul Trepanier, and Phyllis Turner. Jane Brown played a solo on the snare drum and received much commendation for it. Jane also was chosen to participate in the All-State Music Festival again this year, the Montreal Music Festival, and to attend the All New England Music Festival in Rutland.

Basketball season rolled around once more as did the Mid-Year Exams. West Rutland had a winning team on the court and became the Class "M" State Champions, because of the activities of Seniors Bill Benham, Bob Gregory, and Jim Higgins.

After Mid-Years, we settled down to more studying, finishing the yearbook, looking back on the last four years at W.R.H.S., and looking ahead to graduation and our future.

WILLIAM BURKE

Class Prophecy

IT IS the year 2003 and one of the "hottest" trials in history is about to take place in the United States Supreme Court. Judge Anthony Edwards is presiding.

The defendant, Bob Gregory, a big-time gangster, has just entered the court room accompanied by the notorious lawyer, Calhoon Benham. Gregory is charged with "shaving" points in a game in which he played for the defeated Westsiders over forty years ago. His wife, the former Sylvia Lio and their twelve little bambinos, are in attendance.

The first witnesses for the plaintiff are former cheerleaders of West Rutland High School. They are Maureen Powers and Bonnie Paul, respectively. Both Miss Powers and Miss Paul testified that they heard Gregory make a "deal" with Alcapotsie Daley and Rubber Legs Higgins, secret managers of the Hardwick basketball team.

During this grueling testimony, Gregory was overcome by shock and was attended by Dr. Earl Kehoe, a noted veterinarian, and his nurse, Donna Schollar. They quickly revived him and the trial continued.

Next called to the stand were Stein Pluta and Holmar Oprendeck, two character witnesses for the plaintiff. They testified that Gregory also had, at various times, fixed many ski matches.

After this testimony, a recess was requested by the famous female attorney, Emma Deo, who had recently attained fame in representing Paul Trepanier in a federal suit against the well known "Cover Girl," Melissa Tiraboschi.

Escorting Gregory out of the court room were two burly cops, Gunther Perry and Tootie Valentine, followed by the honorable Judge Edwards.

The two reporters covering the happenings of the trial, William Burke and his wife, the former Jane Brown, have just left the court room. Mr. and Mrs. Burke represent the New York Times which has just recently settled its 41 year old strike.

Also seen leaving the court room were Carole Geryk and Pat Amsden, former sweethearts of the defendant. Accompanying these two lovely molls was the international playboy, Robert Janas. Janas is the owner and instigator of the world famous "Lonely Hearts Club."

Upon resumption of the trial we find Barb Ransom testifying that she and Mary Cheney overheard the defendant boasting about the large sum of money he received for "shaving" the points.

The only witness appearing in Gregory's behalf was Margaret McNamara, a famous Olympic skier, who did a fine job of lousing up things even more.

While in conference, two members of the jury, Norman Sevigny and Phyllis Turner, succeeded in convincing fellow illiterate jury members that Gregory was guilty as charged.

Upon hearing the verdict of guilty, Judge Edwards asked for time to decide the proper punishment for such an offense.

After a short meditation of 3 years, Judge Edwards demanded that Gregory be tarred and feathered and sent out of town on a rail.

P. S. The feathers were donated by William McDevitt and his wife, the former Sandra Gregory. The McDevitts own and operate a huge chicken farm in the suburbs of Tinmouth!

Class Poem

There's a time in life which remains in your heart;
Yes, a special time with which you can't part.
For us, it has been the last four years;
And now, as we leave, there will be sad tears.

For Westside High has been great fun;
And now, our high school days are done!
There will be others, some happy—some blue,
But the last four years will be remembered, it's true.

Tonight we are here to say farewell,
Please wish us luck, and wish us well.

CLASS WITS

Class Pastimes

PATRICIA AMSDEN--Pat was often seen working in the store or with Bud. It's not hard to tell which you preferred, Pat.

WILLIAM BENHAM--reading about and playing sports was Benji's favorite. Do you intend to become a coach or manager, Bill?

JANE BROWN--practicing on the drum was Jane's favorite. Those many awards certainly showed all the time and effort, didn't they, Jane?

WILLIAM BURKE--Bill spent most of his time taking care of and riding horses.

MARY CHENEY--Mary liked to write letters. Was St. Michael's your favorite mailing address, Mary?

JAMES DALEY--Jim concentrated on being late for school. You must have set a record, Jim.

EMMA DEO--square dancing was a real fad for Emma. Will you give the rest of us some lessons, Emma?

ANTHONY EDWARDS--Tony's little white Renault managed to keep him occupied. You must have put many miles on it, Tony.

CAROLE GERYK--never a dull moment with Carole. Did you answer in class as much as out of class, Carole?

ROBERT GREGORY--Squeeks spent most of his time working for Mr. Hinchey. You were his right-hand man, Bob.

SANDRA GREGORY--Sandy was by far the most studious girl in our class. We're sure you will succeed in whatever you do, Sandy.

EARL KEHOE--Earl concentrated on doing drawings for the Green and Gold. You did a very good job, Earl.

JAMES HIGGINS--Jim spent most of his time playing sports and chasing girls. Which was the more fun, Jim?

ROBERT JANAS--Bob spent a great deal of his time working at the A & P. Maybe you will be the owner of it, Bob.

SYLVIA LIO--the Green and Gold kept Sal pretty busy. Maybe someday you'll be editor of one of the largest papers in the country, Sal.

WILLIAM McDEVITT--Bill spent most of his time working at Grabowski's farm. You must surely like to work, Bill.

MARGARET McNAMARA--a very quiet girl but one with many talents. Was skiing your favorite, Peggy?

JOHN OPRENDEK--Jack spent his time studying. It surely paid off, didn't it, Jack?

BONNIE PAUL--"Bonsie" was usually seen in her little black Hillman. That car had many exciting adventures, didn't it, Bonnie?

RALPH PERRY--Ralph spent his time working on his car. You finally got it running, Ralph.

JOHN PLUTA--John spent his time working and skiing. Maybe someday you will make the Olympics, John.

MAUREEN POWERS--Maureen spent her time chaufferring the other girls in her car. You surely helped them a lot, Maureen.

BARBARA RANSOM--when Barbie knew she was right she put up a good battle. How many battles did you win, Barb?

DONNA SCHOLLAR--Donna spent most of her time in the typing room. Were you always typing, Donna, or were you making a new typewriter?

NORMAN SEVIGNY--Norm managed to get hurt playing football each year. You never made it through a season, did you, Norm?

MELISSA TIRABOSCHI--Lissa spent most of her time trying to get her brothers' cars. With your technique, Liss, you'll soon be a professional.

PAUL TREPANIER--Paul spent his time working at his brother's garage. Maybe someday you will be a mechanic, Paul.

PHYLLIS TURNER--when Cricket decided to do something, she did it! Are you planning on a space flight, Cricket?

WILLIAM VALENTINE--Tiny spent his time bothering everybody. You sure were a pest, Tiny.

WILLIAM BENHAM
MAUREEN POWERS

Class Will

PATRICIA AMSDEN--leaves her seat in bookkeeping to anyone who wants to sit near an open window when it is 20 degrees below zero.

WILLIAM BENHAM--wills his thoughtfulness for bringing a towel to basketball practice to "Slick" Rogers. Make sure to share it with the boys, Slick.

L. JANE BROWN--leaves her enjoyment of playing drums to anyone who really "digs that beat."

WILLIAM BURKE--wills his acting ability to Gibbo. Don't forget that the parts with the English accents are Bill's favorite, Gibbo.

MARY CHENEY--wills her typing ability to her sister. If you work as hard as Mary did, you're sure to come out on top!

JAMES DALEY--wills his place in Miss Bliss' heart to Albert Fish. We know by your example that you'll be cherished.

CAROLE GERYK--her ability to make people laugh to Mr. Kelley.

EMMA DEO--wills her quietness to her sister, Linda. Emma was so quiet that we hardly knew that she was around.

ANTHONY EDWARDS--wills his illegible handwirting to Butch Grabowski. Now you'll have an excuse for not handing in your homework, Butch.

ROBERT GREGORY--wills his speed to Ollie Pietryka. We want to see you put it to good use on the football field, Ollie.

SANDRA GREGORY--leaves her waiting place for the Castleton bus to her sister, Jean. Sandy surely had some long waits sometimes.

JAMES HIGGINS--wills his duck hunting skill to Ollie Pietryka. Buy plenty of shells and bone up on the different species of ducks, Ollie.

EARL KEHOE--wills his drawing talent to his brother, Bill. We want to see you drawing the covers for the Green and Gold, Bill.

SYLVIA LIO--leaves her job as Mr. Kelley's private secretary to anyone who likes to type and also run the mimeograph machine and enjoys it.

WILLIAM McDEVITT--wills his woodchuck hairdo to Bill Boutwell. In case you don't know, Bill, the main ingredient is a month's growth of hair.

MARGARET McNAMARA--wills her skiing ability to Mary Margaret Nash. Don't have as many accidents as Marg did, Mary.

JOHN OPRENDEK--wills his ability to sing and create his own songs to Butch Grabowski. You already have a head start, Butch!

BONNIE PAUL--wills her position as beautician of the senior class to Virginia Kean. Do a good job, but don't get scissors happy!

RALPH PERRY--leaves his car troubles to "Young Trip." You seem to have a good start already.

JOHN PLUTA--wills his skis to--nobody. He wants them all to himself.

MAUREEN POWERS--leaves her ability with chemistry experiments to anyone who is brave enough to enter the chemistry lab.

BARBARA RANSOM--wills her seat in shorthand to Helen Austin. Good luck, Helen.

DONNA SCHOLLAR--wills her typing eraser to Esther Carlson. Work hard and good luck, Esther!

NORMAN SEVIGNY--wills his ability to tell jokes to anyone who is a comedian.

MELISSA TIRABOSCHI--leaves to the juniors, Mr. Kelley. Need we say more!

PAUL TREPANIER--wills his curly hair to Mr. Hinchey. That is very thoughtful of you, Paul.

PHYLLIS TURNER--wills all the wonderful times that she had at Westside to her sister, Rosie.

WILLIAM VALENTINE--wills his spare tire to Janet Baron. Take as good care of it as Bill did, Janet.

MARGARET McNAMARA

JOHN OPRENDEK

Class Presentations

PATRICIA AMSDEN--A crown so you'll remember the days you ruled our class.

WILLIAM BENHAM--A basketball so you'll never forget the '63 campaign.

JANE BROWN--Drum sticks to keep you in shape until you reach the top.

WILLIAM BURKE--A horse to help you start a collection of your own.

MARY CHENEY--A box of stationery to keep in touch with your friends.

JAMES DALEY--A list of school days to let you know that most people go to school 5 days a week.

EMMA DEO--Pep pills so you'll get a little boost walking home.

ANTHONY EDWARDS--A can of hair spray to help you keep your hair under control.

CAROLE GERYK--Four bottles of hair color so you can change your hair with the seasons.

ROBERT GREGORY--A pair of high heels so you'll be up to the rest of the world.

SANDRA GREGORY--A tent for your back yard so you can "get away from home."

JAMES HIGGINS--A shovel to help you clean up after one of your famous stories.

ROBERT JANAS--A governor, set at 35 m.p.h.—not that you need one or anything.

EARL KEHOE--A box of pencils to help forward your drawing career.

SYLVIA LIO--A shoe rack to help you keep all your shoes in their correct places.

WILLIAM McDEVITT--A pair of clippers; now you'll never have to go to any old barber.

MARGARET McNAMARA--A tube of "Ben Gay" to relieve some of those aching muscles after a day's skiing.

JOHN OPRENDEK--A book to remind you how hard you worked in school.

BONNIE PAUL--A box of curlers to help you along in your future profession.

RALPH PERRY--An airplane to use when your car gives out on you.

JOHN PLUTA--A year's supply of paper so that you won't have to borrow any in college.

MAUREEN POWERS--A book of Shakespeare's poems; you always went out of your way to read one.

BARBARA RANSOM--a piece of film to remind you of all the times you worked at the Paramount Theater.

DONNA SCHOLLAR--A rattle—to avoid a few tears while you are babysitting.

NORMAN SEVIGNY--Somebody else's Trig paper to remind you of all the help you received this year.

MELISSA TIRABOSCHI--A convertible—to remind you of the one you used to drive.

PAUL TREPANIER--A sports car—to remind you that yours looked something like this.

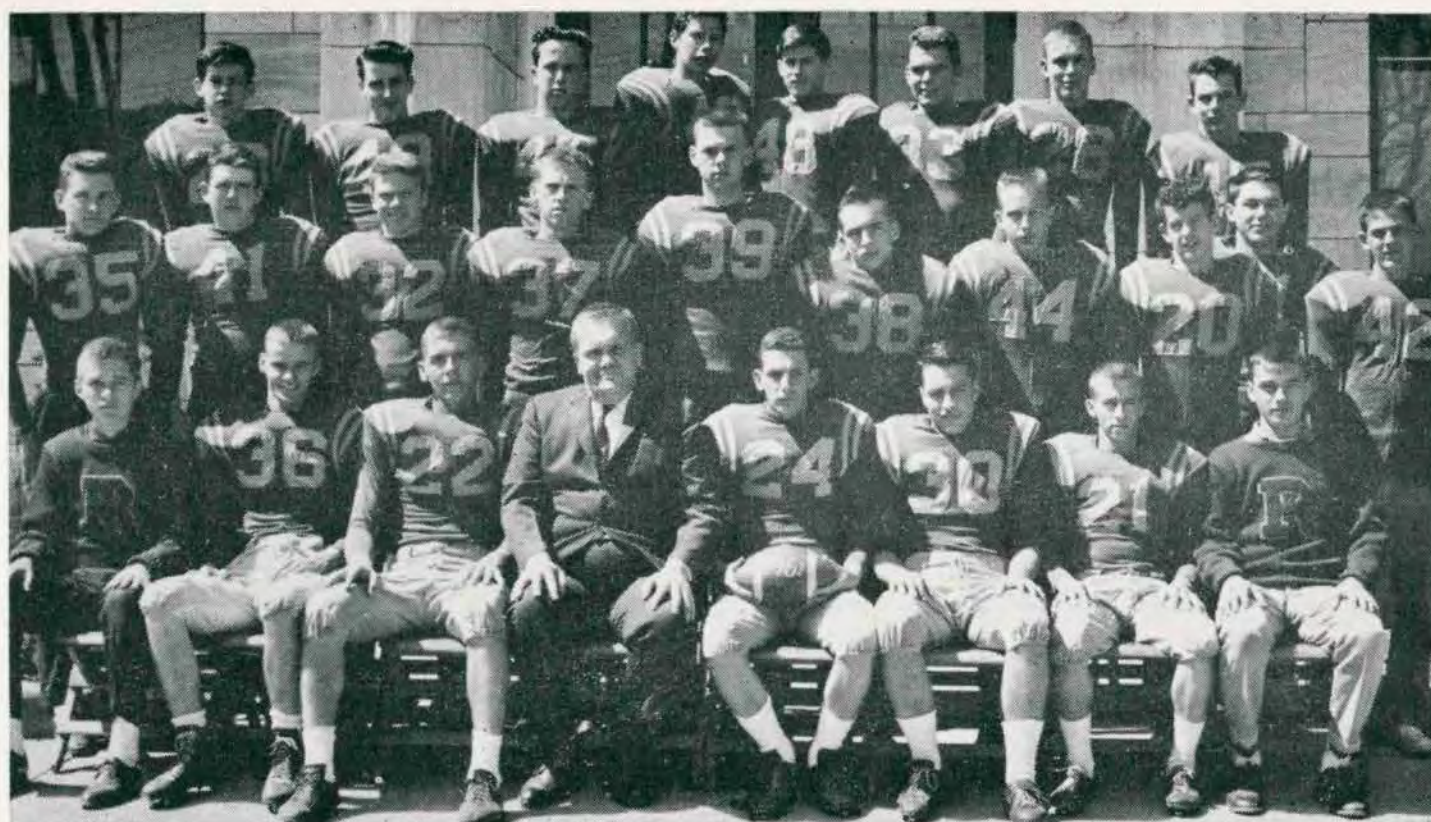

PHYLLIS TURNER--A box of make-up as a gift for all the excellent acting during the years.

WILLIAM VALENTINE--A book of 1001 ways to improve your exam marks.

Football

THE 1962 grid season left the Golden Horde of West Rutland with a 0-6 mark. The varsity squad consisted of seven seniors and several underclassmen. This was one of the smallest team in the history of the school; the average weight was 150 pounds per man.

In the first encounter of the season the Horde traveled to Fair Haven, where they suffered a setback of 27-0. Next the Westsiders played host to Burr & Burton but were still unable to win; this score was 13-0. The Golden Horde's third attempt was also unsuccessful with the Wasps of Woodstock stinging us 13-0 on a mud-played game. The following week the Westsiders traveled to Winooski only to be humiliated with a 67-0 trouncing. The fifth game was against the Champion Blue Devils of Poultney, in which we were downed 33-7. In the final game against Newport the Westsiders played superior ball throughout the game but were still unable to win. The final score was Newport 13, Westside 0.

Freshman Basketball

Front row: James Urbano, Edward Reczek, Raymond Czachor, Francis Bioty, Thomas Jakubowski.
 Second row: William Lundrigan, Leo Carvey, Burke Brough, Clayton Bailey, Stanley Grabowski.

Varsity Basketball

THE 1962-63 basketball season for Westside proved very successful. It showed that we still have some great athletes in the high school.

This is the first year that we have taken the state championship since 1952. In the Class "M" Tournament of southern Vermont West Rutland beat St. Michael's by a score of 58-50. The next evening we beat Poultney by a score of 51-49 in a very thrilling game. In Middlebury for the state finals West Rutland had an easy time beating Hardwick by a score of 73-50.

With the tournament games West Rutland had a record of 18-5. This is one of the best records we have had in recent years.

West Rutland had two of its basketball stars picked for the SVL second team. These players were Olie Pietryka and Jim Higgins. Olie was also picked for the all-tourney team at Rutland.

We also had three players in the top ten scoring for the SVL. These players were Olie Pietryka, Jim Higgins and Bill Boutwell.

Be Near Those
You Love ...
Always.

Even if you can't visit those you love as often as you'd like, your gift portrait will tell them you're thinking of them. You need no special occasion to say "hello" with a portrait of yourself or your family. It's a wonderful way to make someone dear very happy!
